

First Steps New Opportunities

March 2010

What the learners had to say!

It was very good. The centre has provided such a good service that it has enabled me to do the various courses and has helped improve my English dramatically with what they have to offer. Azra Parveen - Reading Ladies

I am interested in doing a Childcare course. The tutor was very helpful and I found the information very useful. Shazia Akhtar - Childcare

The experience I have had today has impressed me to be honest. I enjoyed all the information that the tutors have provided, they were honest and gave us a good prospect about the courses. Outlined all parts of the course too. Mehreen Din - Hair & Beauty

I was very happy with the experience, found out more things about the computer which I didn't know before. Shazia Bibi - IT

Adderley Children Centre and Go-Woman! have been delighted to be part of 'First Steps, New Opportunities' project; developed to encourage more people back into learning, through informal, short, fun and interactive taster sessions without the pressure of a long term commitment.

As part of the project 'Reading Ladies' initiative was set up to allow women to Read, Enjoy, Apply and Discuss books helping them to improve the spoken English language.

'Reading Ladies' provides through informal learning environment an opportunity for women to develop new skills whilst enjoying a learning experience.

Celebration event on Wednesday 31st March 2010 at the Adderley Children Centre will bring together all the learners to share experiences and celebrate individual achievements.

"The project has been successful on many levels, from helping women to make informed choices about future learning to developing a vibrant network of individuals. First Steps, New Opportunities has been a catalyst that has started a learning revolution. We will work closely with Adderley Children Centre to ensure that we continue to support this revolution." said Yasmin Akhtar from Go-Woman!

The legacy from this project will continue to live in the shape of online resources, ensuring that learning is available to a much wider audience beyond the lifespan of this project.
